KENDAL MOUNTAIN FESTIVAL 2007

FILM, BOOK, ART AND ADVENTURE FILM ACADEMY SCHEDULE

We are delighted to welcome old friends and new to the Kendal Mountain Festivals 2007. This schedule and booking form provides a brief day to day guide to the events, speakers and film programme. For greater detail, please visit our website www.mountainfilm.co.uk where you can also book on line.

Entries to the film competition close at the beginning of September. The film programme schedule will be available on line mid October after the pre-selection from our entries is completed. We will also confirm details of the film academy by the end of August.

This year's arts programme in the Brewery Art Centre Galleries include patron Sir Chris Bonington's "My Life in Pictures", with Tony Riley's stunning reproductions of his images, the world première of Si Homfray's "Symphony for the Mountains", the Alpine Club's 150th anniversary collection of photography and paintings and "Lakes by Night", photography by our KMF photographer Henry Iddon.

DAY TO DAY SCHEDULE

FRIDAY 9 NOVEMBER

'Genghis Blues'

Feature Film - BAC £5

6:00pm

Academy Award nominated for Best Documentary, this is the story of blind blues singer Paul Pena who teaches himself the secrets of the Tuvan throat singers and then is invited to Mongolia to compete in the annual competition. "Inspiring, Rare and Wonderful" - Chicago Tribune.

'Five Days One Summer'

Feature Film - BAC £5

8:00pm

We were unsuccessful last year, but this year we've secured a screening of this classic tale of intrigue, love and death in the mountains starring Sean Connery - grand prize winner KMFF 1985!

SATURDAY 10 NOVEMBER

'When is Adventure Madness?'

INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL OF MOUNTAIN LITERATURE Hosted by Terry Gifford - BAC £27.50

9:00am - 5:00pm

The IFML moves to Kendal this year. This is a full day packed with live music, readings, discussions, conversations and debates, there is an accompanying book fair and the guest speakers include, Jeff Long (USA), Geoff Powter (Canada), Tony Streater (UK), Charles Lind (UK), Clint Willis (USA), John Porter (UK) and Mikel Vause (USA) with Ed Douglas (UK), Vicki Robinson (UK), Ian Smith (UK) and Jan Levi (UK).

'Wild Times'

Chaired by Ed Douglas - BAC £10

8:00pm - 9:30pm

In the face of environmental crisis, we are rediscovering that we can't escape or conquer nature. Three of the best nature writers working in English today, Richard Mabey, Kathleen Jamie and the US best-selling author John Vaillant talk with journalist Ed Douglas about their work and their relationship with the natural world.

SUNDAY 11 NOVEMBER

'Great British Journeys'

Presented by Nick Crane - BAC £10

2:30 pm

Nick Crane's new BBC 2 series and accompanying book explore the 'exploration and discovery' of Britain. This is a fascinating tale of the discovery of the coasts and mountains of our own Isles. As Thomas Cook was mapping the unknown Islands of New Zealand, Thomas Pennant was exploring the unknown Highlands and Islands of Scotland. Nick will be available for book signings and questions.

'Call it Karma'

Feature Film - BAC Theatre £5

4:30 pm

Beautiful and cinematic documentary which tells the story of Gyaltzen Rinpoche's spiritual pilgrimage from Tibet to India to Canada and eventually full circle, back home again. Shown with the cartoon short Das Rad.

'Mémoire de Glace' £5

Feature Film - BAC Theatre

6:30pm

Lieutenant Le Kerrec receives an emergency call: a corpse has emerged from the Mer de Glace. Papers identify the victim as 35 year old Bertrand Santini but the exhumed body is that of a 20 year old! This is a modern day Mort de Guide full of suspense and unexpected twists with great footage from Chamonix.

'Skywalkers'

An evening of Free-Flight and BASE Jumping - Rheged £8

7:00pm

Thrilling films from around the world capped with presentations from one of the UK's top paragliding pilots - Keswick's Jocky Sanderson - and one of the world's most exciting young BASE jumpers - Anniken Binz from Norway. Guaranteed to get the blood racing and the heart pounding!

MONDAY 12 NOVEMBER

---

'The Cutting Edge'

Chaired by Colin Wells - Kendal Town Hall £10

7:30pm

Mountain writing is alive and well and full of new talent. KMBF provides a platform for 4 climbers - Nick Bullock, Andy Kirkpatrick, Jan Levi and Colin Wells - all well known for their exploits on rock but who are fast building their reputations on paper.

'Wings on their Feet'

The Kendal Ski and Board Night - BAC £9

7:00pm

Our guest speaker John Falkiner was the inventor of Hot Dog back in the 70's. He went on to work on many Hollywood projects. With film maker Fulvio Mariani they introduce their film's 'Wings on their Feet', plus many other top new ski and board films from around the world.

The Kendal International Film Competition

Over the weekend, there will be around 250 screenings of up to 50 films from more than 200 entries from around the world in eight categories - Climbing, Environment, Culture, Mountaineering, Mountain Adventure, Short Film, People's Choice and the Grand Prize. The programme of films will be available on the KMF website www.mountainfilm.co.uk from mid October.

'My Life in Pictures' - Arts Festival Guest Speakers Sir Chris Bonington & Tony Riley

BAC Gallery £7

3:00 - 4:30pm

In a collaborative venture, our Warehouse exhibition this year is a retrospective exhibition of forty fine art prints illustrating some of Chris's finest photographs. The focus of this venture is to draw attention to beautiful places under threat, in the hope that we manage to protect them. Chris and Tony share their experiences in travelling there and creating this exhibition.

Boardman Tasker Awards

BAC free for BT Panel ticket holders (see above)

4:00pm

The BT Awards shortlist is announced on 10 September 2007 and posted on the Book Festival and Boardman Tasker websites at www.mountainfilm.co.uk and www.boardmantasker.com. Judges for 2007 are Lord Chris Smith (Chair), Alison Fell and Tim Noble.

'Filming Extremes' - The DMM Friday Night Special

BAC £10

7.30 pm

The ups and downs and unexpected in this fascinating tale of filming in Wales with John Cleare, George Smith and Alun Hughes and many more with clips rarely or never seen before form the making of some of the greatest rock climbing films.

'The Good, The Bad and The Beautiful'

Kendal Town Hall £10

7:30 pm

An evening celebrating the work of three previous and popular recipients of, amongst other awards, the Boardman Tasker Prize for Mountain Literature. Al Alvarez, Andy Cave & Greg Child. This promises to be a lively evening with readings, discussions and reflections, chaired by Ed Douglas.

'Trans Antarctica' - with Peter Fuchs and Sir Ranulph Fiennes

BAC £7

12:30pm

2007 is the International Polar Year and also the 50th anniversary of the first crossing of Antarctica. We show the original film shot with Sir Edmund Hillary, George Lowe and Vivian Fuchs in 1957, followed by a panel discussion on the importance of the arctic regions and the work of the Fuchs Foundation. Proceeds go to the Fuchs Foundation.

Boardman Tasker 25th Anniversary Celebration

KLC £12

2:00pm - 4:00pm

The Boardman Tasker Award for Mountain Literature, which KMF is proud to host, is named after two of the most remarkable climbers and adventure writers of their generation - Peter Boardman and Joe Tasker. Twenty five years after they vanished on the NNE Ridge of Everest, Doug Scott and Chris Bonington recall their climbs of Kangchenjunga, Kongur and other major ascents with Peter and Joe, along with readings of some of their favourite writing by their brothers John Boardman and Paul Tasker. Proceeds to the BT Trust.

'No One Died Wishing' - Will Gadd Lecture

Kendal Town Hall £7

2:00pm

Will Gadd is "one of the top outdoor sports athletes in the world" (Outside and Explore), and also one of the most thoughtful and thought provoking. He is best known for the creation of some of the hardest dry tool and ice routes in the world, and for paragliding trips that push the sports into wild new places. Will takes a break from his film judging duties to talk about his experiences and motivation.

‘Class Master’ - Neil Gresham

Kendal Town Hall £7

3:30pm

One of Britain’s best known all round climbers with a penchant for the exotic. After repeating Indian Face (E9) & Equilibrium (E10) Neil climbed in Mongolia, Cuba, Brazil, Vietnam, China and Pembroke where his recent route The Wizard was the first ground-up ascent of an 8a deep water solo in the UK. Neil is also an inspirational trainer and returns to entertain us for the first time since setting off the fire alarms at the KLC in 2000.

‘How Did I Get into this Mess?’ - Greg Child

KLC £12

7:30pm

A chance meeting with climbing legend Doug Scott led to an adventurous, tarantula filled climbing career. Greg has authored books and many articles over the past 25 years. An ‘off the wall’ true story.

‘Living Dangerously’ - Sir Ranulph Fiennes

KLC £15

9:00pm

With many firsts to his name, many successful expeditions and a huge amount of money raised for charity; Ranulph Fiennes has been hailed by the Guinness Book of Records as “The World’s Greatest Living Explorer.” He is also one of the most inspiring and entertaining speakers around. Be prepared to fall off your seats laughing. “The world would be a far duller place without him,” HRH Prince Charles.

‘The Symphony for the Mountains’ - Si Homfray

BAC £7

9:00pm

To accompany his exhibition at Kendal this year, Si Homfray presents a world premiere of an inspirational a/v which captures and builds some of the most stunning mountain images from climbers and mountaineers from around the world. Visit Si’s website www.living-art.org.uk for more details.

‘Am Limit’ - Introduced by Thomas Huber

Screen 2 BAC £7

9:00pm

This remarkable film follows the Huber brothers - Alex and Thomas - through their lives and a series of amazing climbs to one of their greatest challenges - a speed ascent of the Nose on El Capitan. Thomas Huber introduces the film and talks about its creation.

KMF Party

BAC £6

10:30pm

Kendal’s famous (and infamous) festival party – get your tickets early to avoid disappointment!

SUNDAY 18 NOVEMBER

---

All Day Film Pass Kendal International Film Competition

BAC £15

9:00am – 10:00pm

‘Return to the Paine’ with Leo Dickinson and Simon Yates

Kendal Town Hall £7

10:30am

While making his film on Whillans last year, Leo Dickinson came across an unknown and incomplete film of the first ascent in 1963 of the Central Tower. This world premiere of the reconstructed film is followed by recollections and readings by Simon Yates from his remarkable book on Paine ‘Against the Wall’.

‘Eric Shipton’s Patagonia Journeys’ with John Earle and Simon Yates

Kendal Town Hall £7

1:00pm

Eric Shipton was of the world’s greatest explorers and mountaineers - four Everest expeditions, a multitude of amazing lightweight ascents and journeys to unexplored Patagonia. We celebrate these journeys on film – ‘Mountains of Glass’ - presented by his climbing companion John Earle, after which Simon Yates shows slides of his travels in Shipton’s footsteps with Andy Parkin.

‘Storms at Midnight’ with Jack Tackle

Kendal Town Hall £7

2:30pm

After an idyllic childhood growing up in Montana, Jack discovered climbing and went on to establish an impressive range of first ascents and alpine climbing expeditions. He is perhaps best known for his exploits in Alaska which he has visited on 30 different occasions since 1976 and where he has completed many hair raising first ascents. Jack’s dry sense of humour is always hugely entertaining.

‘To the Limit’ with Thomas Huber

Kendal Town Hall £7

4:00pm

The Huber brothers Alex and Thomas have shared many climbs together around the world. Thomas has also done many expeditions on his own with other friends, such as the second ascent of the Ogre - a mountain that waited 25 years for a second ascent.

Kendal Mountain Film Festival Awards - hosted by Sir Chris Bonington & Leo Houlding

BAC Theatre £8 (includes Best of Kendal screenings later in the evening)

5.30pm

Our international panel of judges emerge after a week of deliberation to announce the winning films and also the People’s Choice. An exciting and entertaining conclusion to a festival packed with films and lectures, always with some surprises and shocks as the film clips reveal the winners and runners up.

‘Am Limit’ Introduced by Thomas Huber

Screen 2 BAC £7

6:00pm

This remarkable film follows the Huber brothers - Alex and Thomas - through their lives and a series of amazing climbs to one of their greatest challenges - a speed ascent of the Nose on El Capitan. Thomas Huber introduces the film and talks about its creation.

Best of Kendal 2007

BAC £7 (free to Awards, day and weekend film pass holders)

7:00 pm

The ‘Best of Kendal 2007’ films shown in the Theatre and Cinema 1.

Best of Kendal 2007

Rheged £7

7:30 pm

A selection of the best films at Kendal 2007.
